CHORDS

F A Bb
She had a rag-top Eldorado, "tuck-in-row pleat".

F Bb F
She picked me up in Colorado...and put me right in the driver's seat.

F A Bb
I said "I got no money...you know I got no job".

F Bb F
She said "I tell you what honey...let's find a place to rob".

Bb D Eb
Now the man at the station's name was Jim...I saw it sewed on his shirt.

Bb B C
I told him "do what I say...you'll live another day...nobody's gotta get hurt".

Chorus

F A Bb
It was a crime of passion. She took me by the heart when she took me by the hand.

F Bb F
Crime of passion. A beautiful woman and a desperate man.

F A Bb
Well I thought the thing was over...she was countin' the cash.

F Bb F
When an unmarked Chevy Nova, made the blue lights flash.

F A Bb
She said "officer? Would you help me please?"

F Bb F
I looked at her...and she was pointin' at me.

Bb D D#
You see Jim at the station played his part...he talked a little perjury.

Bb B C
He went to great pains to leave out a name he was a future ex-husband can't you see?

Chorus

F A Bb
It was a crime of passion. She took me by the heart when she took me by the hand.

F Bb F
Crime of passion. A beautiful woman and a desperate man.

Bb D Eb
Now the cop at the station's name was Joe...saw it on his badge on his shirt.

Bb B C
He said "you'll never get away...just do what we say...nobody's gotta get hurt."
