

[C] [F] [C] [F]

[C] You'll find me [F] sitting at this [G] table

[C] with my friend [F] Fin and my friend [G] John [Am] My friend Murd[Em]aney tells us [F] stories of things long [C] gone long gone [G]

[C] And we may [F] take a glass together [G]

[C] the whisky [F] makes it all so clear [G]

[Am] It fires our [Em] dulled imagi[F]nations and I feel so [C] near so [G] near

I feel so [C] near to the howling of the [F] wind

Feel so [C] near to the crashing of the [F] waves

Feel so [C] near to the [Am] flowers in the [F] field

Feel so [C] near [F] [C] [F]

[C] The old man [F] looks out to the [G] island

[C] he says this [F] place is endless [G] thin

[Am] There's no real [Em] distance here to [F] mention we might all fall [C] in all fall [G] in [C] No distance to the [F] spirits of the [G] living

[C] no distance to the [F] spirits of the [G] dead

[Am] And as he [Em] turned his eyes were [F] shining and he proudly [C] said proudly [G] said

I feel so [C] near to the howling of the [F] wind

Feel so [C] near to the crashing of the [F] waves

Feel so [C] near to the [Am] flowers in the [F] field

Feel so [C] near [F] [C] [F]

[C] So we [F] build our tower con[G]structions

[C] there to [F] mark our place in [G] time

[Am] We justi[Em]fy our great de[F]structions as on we [C] climb on we [G] climb

[C] Now the journey [F] doesn't seem to [G] matter

[C] the desti[F]nation's faded [G] out

[Am] And gathering [Em] out along the [F] headland
I hear the children [C] shout children [G] shout

I feel so [C] near to the howling of the [F] wind

Feel so [C] near to the crashing of the [F] waves

Feel so [C] near to the [Am] flowers in the [F] field
