There was a [F] howl that night
 A howling like they'd never [Bb] heard before
 A [C] cry so loud old [C7] granddad almost [Bb] hit the door [C]
 He said "I [F] love this child
 As much as any one that she [Bb] ever bore
 But I [C] thank the Lord we [C7] won't be having any [F] more" [F]

Then the [F] baby heard
 The sweetest sound he'd [Bb] ever heard
 In [C] tones so beauti-[C7]-ful he hung on [Bb] every word [C]
 She sang [F] "Hush my love
 Granny's little dove is gonna [Bb] take to the sky"
 It was [C] on such a night he [C7] learned to fly like a [F] bird [F]

Now the [Bb] years have passed
 And memories come and [F] go
 He [Bb] hears that voice
 That rocked him gently [C] so [C7]

A [F] calm will descend
 And there's peace at the end of the [Bb] darkest night
 Some-[C]-times I cry, Some-[C7]-times I fly like a [F] bird [F]

[F] [F] [Bb] [Bb] [C] [C] [F] [F]

Now the [Bb] years have passed
 And memories come and [F] go
 He [Bb] hears that voice
 That rocked him gently [C] so [C7]

Well the [F] rains gonna fall
 And the winds may blow on the [Bb] darkest night
 Some-[C]-times I cry, Some-[C7]-times I fly like a [F] bird [F]
 A [F] calm will descend
 and there's peace at the end on the [Bb] darkest night
 Some-[C]-times I cry Some-[C7]-times I fly like a [F] bird [F]
