

If You're Ever In Oklahoma by J.J. Cale

[Intro]

A C D7 A x2

If you're [A]ever in Okla[C]homa
You better [D7]move around at [A]night
'Cause they don't [A]like no transport[C]ation
Slipping [D7]by in-and-out of [A]sight

And they don't [D7]care about Dallas, [A]Texas
And they don't [D7]care about Wichi[A]ta
But if you're [A]ever in Okla[C]homa
You better [D7]move a-round the [A]law

They got [A]fines, they got [C]plenty
They'll hold you [D7]up for days on [A]end
Threaten your [A]life, take your [C]money
Make you [D7]think you're there to [A]stay

And they don't [D7]care about Dallas, [A]Texas
And they don't [D7]care about Wichi[A]ta
But if you're [A]ever in Okla[C]homa
You better [D7]move a-round the [A]law

[Solo]

A C D7 A x2

And they don't [D7]care about Dallas, [A]Texas
And they don't [D7]care about Wichi[A]ta
But if you're [A]ever in Okla[C]homa
You better [D7]move a-round the [A]law

[Outro]

If you're [A]ever in Okla[C]homa
You better [D7]move a-round the [A]law
If you're [A]ever in Okla[C]homa
You better [D7]move a-round the [A]law
