Verse

G D C
One night in a motel room
G D C
Eyes cast like steel
G D C
I drank the wine they had left on my table
G D C
I knew the morning was too far
G D C
I smoked my last pack of foreign cigarettes
G D C
I stay only to defy
G D C
The night was dark and the land is cold
G D C
It's frozen right to the bone

Chorus

C D G
And just like fire would I burn up
C D G
Just like fire would ...
C D G C
Just like fire would I bu-rn up

Verse

G D C
500 miles I have gone today
G D C
Tomorrow it's 500 more
G D C
Outside my window the world passes by
G D C
Its stranger than a dream

Chorus

C D G
And just like fire would I burn up
C D G
Just like fire would ...
C D G C
Just like fire would I bu-rn up

Verse

G D C
I go to work and I earn my pay, lord
G D C
And the sweat it falls to the ground
G D C
I see you now but we may never meet again child
G D C
The ice is hanging on the door
