[G] From St. Kilda [Em] to King's Cross is [C] thirteen hours [Am] on a bus
I [G] press my face a-[Em] -gainst the glass and [C] watch the white lines [Am] rushing past
And [C] all around me [D] felt like all in-[Em]-side me and my [Am] body left me [C] and my soul went [D] running

[G] Have you ever [Em] seen King's Cross [C] when the rain is [Am] falling soft
I [G] came in on the [Em] evening bus from [C] Oxford Street I [Am] cut across
And [C] if the rain don't [D] fall too hard [Em] Everything shines just [Am] like a postcard [C] Everything goes [D] on just-the-[G]-same [G]

[C] Fairweather [C] friends are the [G] hungriest friends [G]
[C] I keep my [C] mouth well shut, I [Em >] cross their open [G >] hands

Instrumental: play over

[G] From St. Kilda [Em] to King's Cross is [C] thirteen hours [Am] on a bus
I [G] press my face a-[Em] -gainst the glass
and [C] watch the white lines [Am] rushing past
And [C] all around me [D] felt like all in-[Em]-side me
and my [Am] body left me [C] and my soul went [D] running

I [G] want to see the [Em] sun go down [C] from St. Kilda [Am] Esplanade [G] Where the beach needs [Em] re-construction, [C] where the [G] palm trees [Am] have it hard
I'd [C] give you all of [D] Sydney Harbour [Em] All that land and [Am] all that water, [C] for that one sweet [D] pro-o-omen-[G]-ade.
I'd [C] give you all of [D] Sydney Harbour
[G] All that land and [Em] all that water, [C] for that one sweet [D] pro-o-omen-[G]-ade. [Em] [C] [Am]
