

Railroad Lady $\frac{3}{4}$ time Jerry Jeff Walker/Jimmy Buffett

[F > ] She's a [F>] railroad lady, just a [C>] little bit shady,
[G7>] Spending her days on the [C> ] train. [C7>]
She's a [F] semi good-looker, but the [C] fast rails they took 'er,
Now she's [G7] tryin', just tryin' to [F] get home [G7] a-[C] gain.

South [C] Station in [C7] Boston to the [F] freight yards of [C] Austin,
The Florida sunshine to the New Orleans [G7] rain.

[C] Now that the rail packs have [F] taken the [C] best tracks,
She's tryin', just tryin' to [G7] get home [C] again. [C7]

She's a [F] railroad lady, just a [C] little bit shady,
[G7] Spending her days on the [C] train. [C7]
She's a [F] semi good-looker, but the [C] fast rails they took 'er,
Now she's [G7] tryin', just tryin' to [F] get home [G7] a-[C] gain.

Instrumental – harp over

Once a [C] highballin' [C7] loner, he [F] thought he could [C] own 'er,
Bought her a fur coat and a big diamond [G7] ring.
She [C] hocked them for [C7] cold cash, left [F] town on the [C] Wabash,
Never thinkin', never thinkin' of [G7] home 'way back [C] then.

But the [C softer ] rails are now [C7] rusty, the [F] dining cars [C] dusty,
The gold plated watches have taken their [G7] toll.
The [C] railroads are [C7] dying, and the [F] lady, she's [C] crying,
On a bus to Kentucky, and [G7] home that's her [C] goal. [C7]

She's a [F louder ] railroad lady, just a [C] little bit shady,
[G7] Spending her days on the [C] train. [C7]
Once a [F] Pullman car traveller, now the [C] brakeman won't have her,
She's [C] tryin', just [G7] tryin' to [F] get home [G7] a-[C >] gain [C ! ]
