It doesn't [G] matter who you [Em] are,
You can [D] come by bus or [Bm] car
[G] Come enjoy some music, shed the [A7] blues

You can [D] learn a clever [Bm] ditty, make new [A7] friends
Play a [D] song with mates, the [Bm] music never [A7] ends
You can [G] fix guitars for [Em] schoolkids,
Or [D] help to burn some [Bm] snags
You can [G] write a song and [Em] play it, [D] with some other [Bm] dags
You can [G] rock along and [A7] meet some [D] blokes [Bm]
You can [G] bang your gong or tell Dad [A] jokes

Come a-[G] -long, become a [A7] Shedder,
You'll [D] go home feeling [Bm] better

You can [D] get on board [Bm] if you're feeling [A7] blue
You can [D] get on board [Bm] if you're happy [A7] to Whether [G] skies are grey or [Em] clear,
It's [D] great when we're all [Bm] here
We [G] even welcome banjo players [A7] too

You can [G] bang a drum too [Em] loudly or [D] strum an old [Bm] guitar
You can [G] whack a plastic [Em] bucket or [D] shake an old jam [Bm] jar
It [G] doesn't really [A7] matter what you [D] do [Bm]
It's [G] all about Shedding the [A] Blues

you'll [Bm] just fade a-[A7] -way
So [G] don't let that be [A7] you, there's [D] something you can [Bm] do [G] Do yourself a favour, join the [A7] crew
