

Streets Of Forbes

Key: F

Misc Traditional

Verse 1

Dm F G Dm
Come all you Lachlan men, and a sorrowful tale I'll tell
Dm F G A7
Concerning of a hero bold, who through misfortune fell
Dm G A
His name it was Ben Hall, a man of high renown
Dm F G Bb A Dm A7 Dm A7
Who was hunted from his station and, was like a dog shot down

Verse 2

Dm F G Dm
Three years he roamed the road, and he showed the traps some fun
Dm F G A7
A thousand pounds was on his head, with Gilbert and Jack Dunn
Dm G A
Ben parted from his comrades, the outlaws did agree
Dm F G Bb A Dm A7 Dm A7
To give away bushranging and, to cross the briny sea

Verse 3

Dm F G Dm
Ben went to Goobang Creek, and that was his downfall
Dm F G A7
For riddled like a sieve was the valiant Ben Hall
Dm G A
T'was early in the morning, upon the fifth of May
Dm F G Bb A Dm A7 Dm A7
That the seven police surrounded him, as fast asleep he lay

Verse 4

Dm F G Dm
Bill Dargan he was chosen, to shoot the outlaw dead
Dm F G A7
The troopers then fired madly, and they filled him full of lead
Dm G A
They rolled him in his blanket, and strapped him to his prade
Dm F G Bb
And they led him through the streets of Forbes,
A Dm A7 Dm A7 Dm
to show the prize they had.