

Tell Me Jim (B. Tudor)

Em

Em

D

Hillside dreams on a sunlit plain

Am

B

Em

What have you seen through the years

Em

D

The wisdom of seeing so many things change

Am

B

Em

Memories of laughter and tears

Ch 1

G

D

Won't you tell me Jim, the changes you've seen

Am

B

Em

Through the eyes of a wise man, what do you see

G

D

Tell me Jim the places you've been

Am

B

Em

A life full of giving, forever a dream

Em

D

The Kelly's were here, part of this town

Am

B

Em

House on the corner sits in ruins

Em

D

What injustice saw him turn to crime?

Am

B

Em

His young life ended too soon

Ch2

Won't you tell me Jim, do you like what you see

Am G B D Em
Are we all given our own destiny

Please tell me Jim, in the blink of an eye

Am B D Em
What do we leave, when we die

Em D
Cut through our lands no need to explain

Am B D Em
But a farmer stands in the way

Em D
When it's finished what will remain,

Am B D Em
When the colours bleed to grey- who has the Will to stay?

Ch1/ Break Verse

Em D
A young boy is grieved by a fire's mighty rage

Am B D Em
Too soon both lives, too soon

Em D
A fragment remains no matter what age

Am B D Em
Remember little man, life will resume

Em D
Through the time a story begins,

Am B D Em
The little man broken in two

Em D
When will progress pay for its sins,

Am B D Em
Do they really see what they do.

Repeat Ch2