

Far Shore

was written by ex-Easybeats Harry Vanda and George Young. The Seekers recorded this song on their 1997 album entitled "Treasure Chest".

INTRO: [G] [C] [G] [C]

TACIT: We didn't have the [G] chance to say good-[C]-bye, but how were we to [G] know [C]
We didn't get a-[G]-round to say the [C] words, we really should have [Em] said
[C] We've come a long way to-[G]-gether, [C] we've travelled many [G] roads
[C] Through wonderful [G] worlds, and [C] still [G] have [D] many more to go

CHORUS:

[C] So [D] I'll [Em] see you, on the [C] far shore
I'll [G] see you then, we'll [C] dream again of [G] golden days and [C] nights we've yet to [D] know [C] Yes [D] I'll [Em] see you, on the [C] far shore I'll [G] see you then, I [C] know I will
'Cos we've still got, a long long way to go [Em] [D] [C] [Am]

TACIT: We've stood above the [G] clouds on mountain [C] tops, they said we'd never [G] climb [C] We've soared off to the [G] sky with no re-[C]-gret, left valleys far be-[Em]-hind [C] We've made it through stormy [G] weather, [C] we've braved the wind and [G] rain
[C] We knew that the [G] sun, would [C] lead [G] us [D] safely home again

CHORUS:

INSTRUMENTAL: over [G] [C] [G] [C] [G] [C] [D]

CHORUS:

OUTRO: [C] yes we've still got, a long long way to go
