I know you're looking for a ruby
       A                 F#m
In a mountain of rocks

VERSE

C#m                                         D
I can't lie, I can't tell you that I'm something I'm not
                            C#m
No matter how I try, I'll never be able, To give you something

Something that I just haven't got oh woh oh

            A       A/G#                F#m
Now there is only one girl that I will ever love

And that was, so many years ago
             A       A/G#        F#m

     D                 E           A
She kissed me and got out of our bed
                            A/G#
And though I pleaded and I begged her
```

       F#m
Not to walk out that door
      D                              E
She packed her bags and turned right away
            D         E          D        E
And she kept on telling me she kept on telling me

She kept on telling me
